11 (a) 2Q21 CET1 MDA transitional buffer at 708bps.

Net interest starting to stabilise

Financial highlights – Net interest

m

Average Euribor 3M -0.54% (Obps Q/Q)

- Net interest income¹ up +1.0% Q/Q supported by TLTRO additional take-up at end of 1Q21 (+15m Q/Q) and days effect (+13m Q/Q)
- Positive contribution from loan volumes showing first signs of recovery
- Customer loan rates still impacted by lower yielding loans issued under government guarantee schemes and continued competition

Another strong quarterly performance in fees

Financial highlights - Fees

m

Investment fees Financing fees Transactional fees

- Continued strong commercial activity with AuM upfront fees up > 150% Y/Y thanks to AuM gross sales >100% Y/Y mainly in Italy. AuM management fees +13.1% Y/Y benefiting from higher average volumes
- Financing fees up 2.7% Y/Y thanks to strong rebound in credit protection insurance sales
- Transactional fees up 10.9% Y/Y reflecting increase in GDP sensitive fees as lockdowns eased

High quality trading income driven by recurring client activity

Financial highlights - Trading and dividends

Trading income, m

■ Client driven (w/o XVA)
 ■ Not client driven (w/o XVA)
 ■ XVA²

Dividends¹, m

1. Data as of as of 30 Jun 21, including all Covid-19 initiatives. Volumes in Enterprises include Leasing. CEE consolidated data. Rating distribution calculated on the basis of internal details.
2. Figures based on legal entities. Includes also CIB clients.
3. Opt-out means that the moratoria is automatically granted to all clients which can then decide not to have it. It applies to Hungary, however in comparison to 2020 in 2021 to be included under moratoria the clients needs to submit notification to the bank. Serbia also still reflected under opt-out, even though from the beginning of 2021 an opt-in moratoria is in place. The reason is substantial expired amount of opt-out moratoria in 2020.

This note refer to the metric and/or defined term presented on page 32 \(Moratoria expiration\):

1. Data as of 30 Jun 21.
